An educational visit was arranged for 4th year physiotherapy students to Primary Health Centre, Khadakwasla, Pune by the department of Community physiotherapy. The class was divided into 3 batches of approximately 20 students each. College bus was utilised for travelling to and from the venue and students were accompanied by faculty members everyday.

After reaching the PHC, students were oriented to the PHC building structure and the various areas it was divided into. Students observed vaccination rooms, the cold storage units, the laboratoty, delivery room and the ORS vending machine. Students had an opportunity to interact with the Resident medical Officer (RMO at the PHC. They asked questions about the functioning of the PHC which were duely answered. Students received information about the area served by the PHC, the sub centres under PHC and medical conditions treated at the PHC. It was an educationally enriching experience for all the students.
